Opening Sentences:

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them.

Statement on the Gift of Marriage:

On behalf of the families of the Name and Name, and the people of this congregation we welcome you to this joyous celebration in which Name and Name will affirm the choice they have made of each other as they enter into the covenant of marriage.

We gather in the presence of God to witness the joining together of Name and Name, to surround them with our prayers, and to ask God's blessing upon them, so that they may be strengthened for their life together, and nurtured in their love of God and one another.

Let us always remember that it is God who created us so that we might help and comfort one another, living faithfully together in plenty and in want, in joy and in sorrow, in sickness and in health, throughout all our days.

God gave us covenants such as marriage for the full expression of love. In such a covenant, we belong to one another, and with affection and tenderness we freely give ourselves to one another.

God bound us together for the well being of society, for the ordering of our lives, and for the birth and nurture of children.

Name and Name are now called to a new way of life created, ordered, and blessed by God. This way of life must not be entered into carelessly or from selfish motives, but must always be entered into responsibly and prayerfully.

We rejoice that their life together, which is based in love, fidelity, and commitment, is given by God, blessed by our Lord Jesus Christ, and sustained by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, may it be held in honor by all.

Prayer

Let us pray: Gracious God, you are always faithful in your love for us. Look with joy upon Name and Name, who have come seeking your blessing. Let your Holy Spirit rest upon them so that with steadfast love they may honor the promises they make this day, through Jesus Christ our Savior, Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer:

Eternal God, spirit of love and grace, give your wisdom to Name and Name that they might be to each other a strength in need, a counsellor in perplexity, a comfort in sorrow, and a companion in joy. Grant that their wills may be so knit together that they may grow in love and peace all the days of their lives. Give them grace, when they hurt each other, to recognize and confess their fault and to seek each other's forgiveness and yours. Make their life together a sign of Christ's love to this broken world, that unity may overcome estrangement, forgiveness heal guilt, and joy conquer despair. Give them such fulfilment of their mutual love that they may reach out in concern for others. Grant that all who have witnessed these vows today may find their lives strengthened and that all who are in committed relationships may depart with their own promises renewed. Enrich with your grace all partners and spouses, parents and children, that loving and supporting one another, they may serve those in need and be a sign of your reconciling love, peace and justice. Amen.

Lord's Prayer either spoken or soloPronouncement of Marriage:

Before God, and in the presence those gathered here, Name and Name have made their solemn vows to each other. They have confirmed their promises by the joining of hands and by the giving and receiving of rings. Therefore, I proclaim that they are now, husband and wife. Blessed by the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit now and forevermore. Amen!

Those whom God has joined together, let no one separate.

And now, Name and Name, as God's own, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness and patience, forgiving each other as the Lord has forgiven you, and crown all these things with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

Benediction:

The grace of Christ attend you, the love of God surround you, the Holy Spirit keep you, that you may live in faith, abound in hope, and grow in love, now and forevermore. Amen.
